

The Language of Faith

Matthew 9:28-29 When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

"Yes, Lord," they replied. Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith will it be done to you"

I took my son to an outfitters store to look at air-rifles. He convinced me that he just wanted to "look", with his birthday conveniently around the corner. Things have changed with air-rifles in performance and price...especially price.

We then laid eyes upon the Mother of all air-rifles. Every boy's sniper dream pellet gun. I looked at that rifle and thought to myself, "Sheeze, I'm not a kid and I want this gun!" Then I looked at the price and thought that there is no way in creation that my boy is ever going to see this gun wrapped in a box.

Now I had already priced this rifle at another outfitters store, and it was over 400 bucks. The manager of this store we were looking at decided that this day, he would run this rifle for half off. I was thinking, "Well, were getting closer."

Then the sales clerk said he would knock ten percent off, in addition to another twenty-five bucks off. Before I knew it, my son was walking out of the store with a big fat grin on his face with a brand-new air-rifle.

I looked at him in the car and said, "Son, honest to goodness, I thought there was no way on God's green earth we would ever be able to get you that rifle."

He just looked at me and said, "Dad, I knew God wanted to bless me with that rifle."

A man once said, "Faith says, 'God can do it.' Great faith says, 'God will do it.' Perfect faith says, 'God's already done it.'" What's your faith saying? Need help? Ask a child.
